Abide With Me

Words: H.F. Lyte 1793-1847

Music: W.H. Monk 1823-1889

Abide with me, fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide!
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, Lord abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O thou who changest not, abide with me.

I fear no foe with thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if you abide with me.

Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies:
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me!

Collect

Merciful Father,
Hear our prayers and comfort us;
Renew our trust in your Son,
Whom you raised from the dead;
Strengthen our faith
That all who have died in the love the Lord
Will share in his resurrection;
Who lives and reigns with you,
In the unity of the Holy Spirit,
One God, now and forever.

Amen

1 Kings 3. 5-7, 9-12

⁵ At Gibeon the Lord appeared to King Solomon in a dream; and God said, "Ask anything of me." ⁶ And Solomon said, "You have shown great and steadfast love to your servant, my father, David, because he walked before you in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart toward you; and you have kept for him this great and steadfast love, and have given him a son to sit on his throne today. ⁷ And now, O Lord my God, you have made me your servant king in place of my father David, although I am only a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in.

⁹ Give your servant then an understanding mind to govern your people, able to discern between good and evil; for who can govern this your great people? ¹⁰ It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. ¹¹ God said to him, "Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches, or for the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, ¹² I now do according to your word. Indeed I give you a wise and discerning mind; no one like you has been before you and no one like you shall rise after you. ¹³ I give you also what you have not asked, both riches and honour all your life. The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Prayers of Thanksgiving (Reverend Liz Russell)

Please sit or kneel

Father in heaven,

We thank you because you made us in your own image

And gave us gifts in mind, body and spirit.

We thank you now for Glyn

And what he meant to each of us.

As we honour his memory,

Make us more aware that you are the one

From whom comes every perfect gift,

Including the gift of eternal life through Jesus Christ.

Amen

Most merciful God,

Whose wisdom is beyond our understanding,

Surround the family of Glyn with your love,

That they may not be overwhelmed by their loss,

But have confidence in your goodness
And strength to meet the days to come.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

Almighty God, we pray that,
Encouraged by the example of your saints,
We may run with patience the race that is set before us,
Looking to Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith;
So that at the last we may join those whom we love
In your presence where there is fullness of joy;
Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Lord's Prayer

Please stand

Our Father in heaven,
Hallowed be your name,
Your kingdom come,
Your will be done,
On earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
As we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
Now and forever.

Amen

Words: William Williams 1717-1791

Music: John Hughes 1873-1932

Guide me, O thou great Redeemer,
Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty,
Hold me with thy powerful hand:
Bread of heaven
Bread of heaven,

Donations

Donations in the memory of Glyn Berry are welcome to the Afghanistan operations of the International Committee of the Red Cross.

The ICRC in Afghanistan provides support for selected hospitals and for six physical rehabilitation centres largely devoted to helping landmine victims. The institution also runs programmes to highlight the dangers posed by unexploded ordnance and rehabilitates water and sanitation services.

Glyn first visited Kabul at the beginning of 2000, where he saw firsthand the effects of landmines on a society, especially one recovering from years of strife. Since that time, he has been committed to efforts to rebuild Afghan society and support those who have lost limbs through mines.

We would be honoured if donations could be made in his name to support the efforts of the ICRC.

Donations can be made online at www.icrc.org by completing the donations form. On the form, please make the donation in the memory of Glyn Berry and notify Valerie Berry c/o ldn-ag@international.gc.ca.

Alternatively, a cheque can be made out to the "International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC)", accompanied by a completed donation form (on the ICRC website) or with a note containing the following information: program to support (Afghanistan), person in whose memory to make the donation (Glyn Berry) and notify (Valerie Berry c/o ldn-ag@international.gc.ca.)

Cheques should be sent directly to ICRC at:

International Committee of the Red Cross
19, avenue de la Paix
CH 1202 Geneva, Switzerland

Thank you for your kind wishes and thoughts.

Sincerely,

The Berry Family

Feed me till I want no more.
Feed me till I want no more.

Open now the crystal fountain
Whence the healing stream doth flow;
Let the fire and cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through:
Strong deliver,
Strong deliver,
Be thou still my strength and shield.
Be thou still my strength and shield.

When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Death of death, and hell's destruction
Land me safe on Canaan's side:
Songs of praises
Songs of praises
I will ever give to thee.
I will ever give to thee.

On January 15, 2006, senior Canadian diplomat Glyn R. Berry was tragically killed in a terrorist attack in Afghanistan. At that time, he was Political Director for the Provincial Reconstruction Team in Kandahar with the Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade (DFAIT) Canada. Mr. Berry was a principled humanitarian; passionately devoted to improving conditions for ordinary people in desperate circumstances.

Mr. Berry spent almost 30 years in the Canadian Foreign Service, serving in Oslo, Washington, Havana, London and Islamabad, before moving on to the United Nations. He was widely respected and immensely admired as a tireless advocate of peacebuilding, contributing to Canada's efforts to promote the international Responsibility to Protect doctrine.

GLYN R. BERRY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP IN INTERNATIONAL POLICY STUDIES

Mr. Berry graduated with a PhD (Political Science) from Dalhousie University in 1981. In his honour, Dalhousie, in partnership with DFAIT, is creating the Glyn R. Berry Memorial Scholarship in International Policy Studies.

This scholarship, a tribute to Mr. Berry in perpetuity, will be awarded to a PhD candidate in political science who specializes in Canadian foreign policy, defence and security policy, development assistance policy, or another area addressing Canada's role in international affairs.

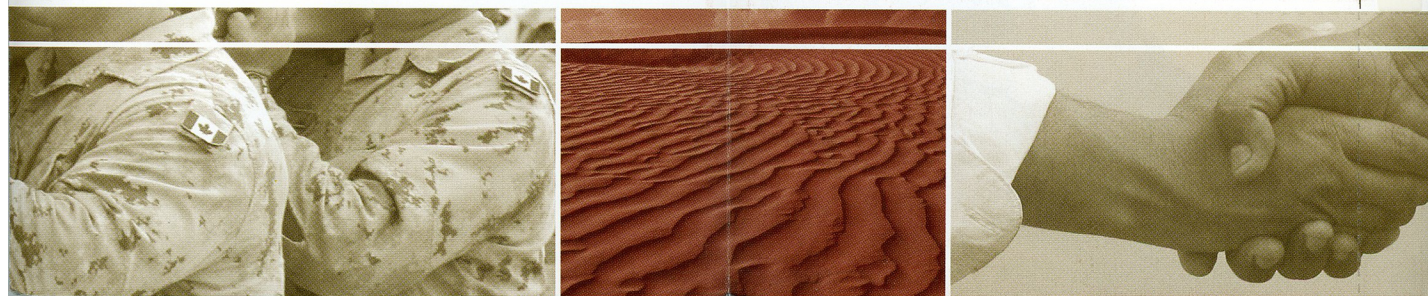

Le 15 janvier 2006, le diplomate canadien Glyn R. Berry a été tragiquement tué lors d'un attaque terroriste en Afghanistan. À cette époque, il était directeur politique de l'Équipe provinciale de reconstruction du Canada pour le ministère des Affaires étrangères et du Commerce international (MAECI) à Kandahar. M. Berry était un humaniste par principe; passionnément dévoué à l'amélioration des conditions de vie des gens ordinaires en situation désespérée.

M. Berry a passé presque 30 ans au service extérieur canadien et a occupé des postes à Oslo, à Washington, à La Havane, à Londres et à Islamabad, avant d'oeuvrer au sein des Nations Unies. Il était grandement respecté et très admiré comme défenseur infatigable du maintien de la paix, et a contribué aux efforts du Canada pour promouvoir, sur le plan international, la doctrine Responsabilité de protéger.

BOURSE EN ÉTUDES DE POLITIQUE INTERNATIONALE À LA MÉMOIRE DE GLYN BERRY

M. Berry a obtenu son doctorat en science politique à l'Université Dalhousie en 1981. En son honneur, Dalhousie a décidé de créer la "Bourse en études de politique internationale à la mémoire de Glyn Berry".

Cette bourse, un hommage à la mémoire de M. Berry, sera accordée à un candidat au doctorat en science politique désireux de se spécialiser en politique étrangère canadienne, en politique de défense et sécurité, en politique d'aide au développement, ou tout autre champ se rapportant au rôle du Canada dans les affaires internationales.
